

Pre-Mass Announcements for the 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time (October 10/11, 2026)

Good afternoon or morning! Welcome to Saint James the Apostle Parish. This weekend, we celebrate the 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time.

- 1) On Monday, October 12, the parish and school offices, along with the adoration chapel, will be closed. Mass will still be offered at 8 a.m.
- 2) The St. Gianna Adoration Chapel will open with expanded hours on Tuesday, October 13. Due to recently enhanced security measures, Eucharistic Adoration will be offered from 8:30 am to 8 pm, Monday through Friday. Adorers should continue to enter and exit through Door 11 on the north side of the building; Door 12 will remain locked.
- 3) A communal healing service will be offered between Masses next Sunday, October 18. All who have reached the age of reason, and need significant healing in mind, body, or spirit, are invited to attend this sacramental service, the Anointing of the Sick.
- 4) St. James the Apostle Catholic School will be selling raffle tickets in the Narthex today, and all are invited to its annual auction on October 23. See p. 9 of the bulletin for details.

Check the parish website and weekly FlockNote emails for more St. James information.

Our opening hymn is number 597, Glory and Praise to Our God, 5-9-7. Please stand.
